Organizations to which Chevron historically pays membership dues that write model legislation not listed above include: The American Legislative Exchange Council (No lobbying expenditures, dues payment range $15,000-29,999) and National Conference of State Legislatures (No lobbying expenditures, dues payment range $15,000-29,999).

This list identifies U.S.-based organizations that reported a percentage of the 2021 funding they received from Chevron as a lobbying expense. Approximately 34% of our payments to U.S.-based trade associations were attributed towards non-deductible federal, state, local and grassroots lobbying as provided to Chevron by the organizations. This disclosure goes beyond what is required by the Lobbying Disclosure Act, therefore the amounts reported may exceed other legal disclosures made. A good-faith effort has been made to compile this information.
